

TAKE A VACATION FROM RISK IN 2017

WORK WITH
NORTH AMERICAN TITLE

THE BEST PRACTICES CERTIFIED
COMPANY THAT HELPS YOU LEAVE
YOUR WORRIES BEHIND

At North American Title, our first concern is making sure your clients' transaction is handled with the professional expertise you have come to expect from our experienced staff. We also know that ensuring the most robust protection for your client's personal information is of utmost importance to you.

That's why we have been aggressive in building substantive systems to meet the highest standards of compliance in the industry. Our dedication at every level of the company to stay abreast of regulatory changes was key to earning Best Practices Certification in 2016 from Aprio, formerly HA&W. Our certification is your assurance that we comply in all material respects with the American Land Title Association Best Practices framework.

Here are seven fewer things for you to worry about when you place your transaction with North American Title:

1. You will be working with a professional team who has been properly licensed
2. Our escrow accounting procedures ensure the most careful and secure handling of your funds, as well as your client's funds
3. Your client's nonpublic personal information will be protected by our robust privacy and information security systems
4. Our settlement procedures are carefully structured and disciplined to ensure a smooth and accurate closing process
5. Title policy production and delivery follows strict protocols to make sure the documentation is in the hands of the underwriter and your client in a timely manner
6. We are fully licensed and bonded for the ultimate protection of your transaction
7. And finally, issues, questions or complaints are followed up on with great diligence and complete follow-through to resolution

So, no worries – be happy in 2017!

When you look to reduce your business and regulatory risk, look to North American Title for settlement services and title insurance procedures that meet the stringent regulatory standards set out by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.
